

We fall, but we stand up stronger

From time to time we may get knocked down.
Together let's learn from Charlie Brown.
Never give up fighting when doing something right.
At the end of the tunnel we'll see the light!

Run after your dreams even if they seem far away.
They won't come nearer unless you try another way.
Strive and overcome with great determination,
Just like Charlie Brown with his imperfection.

Treasure those who always stand by you.
They may save your day out of the blue.
Spend time with friends who give you encouragement.
Hand in hand you'll make the greatest achievement!
